Click the download link for your computer.

How to tell if your windows is 32 bit or 64 bit?

Right-click on the little windows icon

that is the start menu.

Then click on System.

This will open the About screen for your computer. Under Device Specifications you will see System type.

System type 64-bit operating system, x64-based processor

When you click on the link the client will be downloaded and you can find a link to it at the bottom left of the Chrome window.

Double click that link and it will run the installer.

Click Next. You'll get this screen. Click Next.
